Monday, June 25. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated June 20.

Rome, May 26.

Notwithstanding the King of the Romans has not written yet to the Pope, to notify to him the Death of the Emperor Leopold his Father; and tho' 'tis known he has written on that Subject to the Republick of Venice, to Turin, and to other Places; his Holyness has inform'd the Consistory of it, has said Mass for the Repose of the Soul of the deceas'd, and recommended the like pious Office to the Cardinals and to several Fraternities. The Count de Lamberg, who upon the Advices he receiv'd of the late Emperor's being dangerously sick, went from hence for Loretto to pray for his Recovery; return'd hither the 21st Instant, having before he reach'd Loretto receiv'd the News of his Death. Since his Return, he sent his Secretary to the Palace, to signify that his Powers being expir'd, he could not till he had receiv'd new Powers and Instructions act as Ambassador. Those Powers and Instructions are not yet come; and besides we are surpriz'd to hear that when the Nuncio presented himself to give the last Benediction to the late Emperor in the Pope's Name, he was refus'd Admittance; nor was he even suffer'd to compliment the King of the Romans, the day the Emperor died, tho' all the other Ministers had Audience of him that day. The 20th of this Month the Queen Dowager of Poland return'd hither from Venice, without having obtain'd a favourable Answer from the Court of Vienna, to the Instances she made for the Liberty of the Princes her Sons.

From the Paris Gazette, dated June 27.

Rome, June 10. The 28th of last Month, a Courier arriv'd from Vienna, sent by the King of the Romans to the Count de Lamberg, with a Letter, in which he notifies to the Pope the Death of the Emperor Leopold. The Count de Lamberg sent this Letter to the Palace by his Secretary; and has communicated the Subject of it to the Cardinals, by one of his Gentlemen. It was expected, that conformably to what has usually been practis'd, this Letter would have been brought and presented by one of the Gentlemen of the Imperial Bed-Chamber; which would have engag'd the Pope to have return'd an Answer by one of his Chamberlains of Honour. But the Way now taken being new, it is not known yet what will be determin'd upon this Subject, nor on several others relating to the Ceremonial. Some Conferences have been held about it with the Masters of the Ceremonies, to know what has been done heretofore on like Occasions. The 28th likewise, the Bishop of Posnania arriv'd here, accompanied by the Secretary of the Nuncio in Poland, into whose Hands King Augustus had remitted him, after having kept him a long time close confin'd, without suffering him to hear Mass. He was immediately conducted to the Castle of St. Angelo, of which he made great Complaints. The Pope sent to compliment him, and has order'd that he be treated with all honourable Usage possible. The Queen Dowager of Poland has also sent the Marquis Montorio to pay him a Visit.

From the Amsterdam Gazette and Courant, June 26.

Rome, June 6. The Count de Lamberg, his Imperial Majesty's Ambassador, has receiv'd Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation from all the Sacred College, except from the Cardinals de Janfon, d'Arquien, Pignatelli, and Homodei. The Pope allows the imprison'd Bishop of Posnania 10 Crowns a Day for his Table.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 23.

Vienna, June 10. The Mausoleum erected in the Church of the barefooted Augustins being finish'd, the Obsequies of the deceas'd Emperor were begun on Sunday the 8th Instant and were ended to day. This solemnity was perform'd with great Magnificence, in Presence of their Imperial Majesties, the Ministers, Princes, Nobility, Courts of Justice, and Magistrates, all in deep Mourning. The funeral Sermon was preach'd by Father Widman a Jesuite, who out of a furious Zeal taking occasion to villify the Protestants, calling them Hereticks, and extolling the late Emperor's Severities against them as a very pious and meritorious Action, the new Emperor was highly offended at him, has publicly signified his Displeasure, and has order'd one of his Ministers to reprimand him sharply, and forbid him to preach any more, or to print his said Sermon on the late Emperor.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 23.

Lublin, May 31. We suffer extremely here by the Marches of the Troops of the Kingdom, and by being oblig'd to subsist them; which has made most of the Inhabitants of this Part of the Country retire elsewhere, and the Tradesmen of this Town have kept their Shops shut these 6 Weeks. The Swedes are come to Sendomir.

Wilna, May 31. 'Tis reported as certain, that the Czar will shortly come hither: His Troops continue here. Yesterday a Detachment of them of 500 Foot march'd towards Kowna and will be follow'd to Day by 1000 more. General Oginski has pass'd through this Place, to go to Witepsk to the Czar of Muscovy, to solicit a Suspension of the Contributions we pay, and to intreat him to cause his Troops to march out of this Part of the Country, which they have burthen'd a long Time.

Warsaw, June 9. The Court of King Augustus continues still at Brzeze, expecting the Return of General Patkul, who is gone to Witepsk, to confer with the Czar concerning the intended Junction of a numerous Body of his Troops with the Saxons. His Czarish Majesty is expected at Wilna after the Whitsun-Holidays. Prince Wiesnowiski General of Lithuania, was lately at Brzeze 3 days together, and from thence is gone to draw together his Army, which consists of 15000 effective Men.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 26.

Amsterdam, June 26. Letters from Warsaw of the 12th Instant, advise, that the Cardinal Primate had at last issued Universalia or circular Letters, summoning the little Diets in all the Palatinats to meet the 26th of this Month, and a general Diet to assemble in July. They add, that seeing this Proceeding plainly shews how little the Cardinal and his Adherents think themselves concern'd to keep any Measures with the Court of Rome notwithstanding all its Threats, they have judg'd it expedient to draw up a kind of Manifesto, in which they protest both against the Detention of the Bishop of Posnania, and against all that the said Court may hereafter offer to do in Prejudice of the new King Stanislaus. This Manifesto Manifesto is design'd to pass through all the Provincial Diets of Poland and Lithuania. But as all the Members of the Republick are not of a Mind upon so tender a Point, Time will shew the Success of a Project of so great Consequence.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 30, Warsa, June 16: All the Palaces are sitting up here, against the coming of the Nobility that are expected; We are in hourly expectation of hearing the Result of the Diet of the Palatinat of Sendomir, which met the 10th of this Month. Universalia from King Augustus were lately sent hither, but have not yet been publish'd, and Time is taken to deliberate upon them: The 11th of this Month came Universalia from the Cardinal Primate, summoning the Diets of all the Palatinats to meet the 26th of this Month; and appointing a Congress to be held here the 11th of next Month. We have Advice from Wlana, that the Czar finding himself indispos'd at Witepsk, is gone to Smolensko; whereupon General Oginski has put off the Journey he design'd to make to him. Mean time the Muscovites continue their Preparations, and have laid 2 Bridges above Kowna, over the Rivers Nimen and Wilia.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 23, Amsterdam, June 23. We learn by Letters of the 17th Instant from Saxony, that the Troops of that Electorate have form'd 3 Camps: One near Dresden is compos'd of 7 or 8000 Men; another in the Neighbourhood of Torgau will be of 6000 Men; the other is in Lusace on the Frontiers of Poland. They will all together make an Army of 20000 Men. Mean time the Swedes keep upon their Guard; and the Detachment of their best Troops, which is at Meseritz, will be made up 12000 Men at least.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 30, Amsterdam, June 30. Letters from Saxony of the 24th Instant tell us the King of Poland was expected that day at Dresden from Carelsbad, having perfectly recover'd his Health. The Troops of that Electorate are in their several Camps. The Swedes have begun to form a Camp near great Glockau; with design, 'tis believ'd, to oppose the Return of King Augustus into Poland. 'Tis confirm'd Preparations are made at Warlaw, against the Arrival of the Cardinal Primate, who is expected there with a great Number of Nobility of Prussia, in order to crown King Stanislaus; But 'tis also advis'd that the Muscovites are on the March to oppose that Design; and that the King of Sweden has resolv'd to march to meet them, with about 17000 Men of his best Troops.

All kinds of Feavers and Agues may be considerably abated (in a Methodical manner) within the space of 24 Hours, and effectually cured (beyond any fear of a Relapse) sooner, and abundantly more safely, then by the common, but Empirical, and dangerous use of the Jesuit's Bark. N. B. This method of curing Feavers and Agues (without the use of one grain of the Jesuits Powder) was above 10 Years since first advanced, but now both improved and confirmed by the daily Experience of T.
